Check Charging System=>Power Steering Loss? PLS Help

I just went out to leave for my nieces graduation, after having parked the truck at 3pm yesterday, and I had no power steering and the check charging system light was on. I sent my husband to get power steering fluid (it was at minimum), but the two issues had to be connected because there was nothing wrong yesterday.

Power steering help

Tonight when parallel parking my 08 AWD Taurus my power steering died when turning the wheel to the left, fine to the right. On the way home the power steering felt "weak". It was a bit jumpy turning the wheel to the right and not there at all till I almost got to lock on the left, then would kick in.
