

Above ground pool solar reel system

Overview

Can a solar cover reel be used in an above ground pool?

Most solar cover reels you come across will be designed for inground swimming pools, so they aren't tall enough to overlook the walls of an above ground pool – unless you have a flush pool deck, of course.

What is the best above ground solar cover reel system?

1. Dohenys Above Ground Solar Cover Reel Systems (Fits Pools Up to 24 Wide Deluxe Wheel) (Elisa Melendez) I'm so glad I bought this Doheny's Above Ground Solar Cover Reel System!.

Where can I buy solar cover reels?

At In The Swim, we offer a wide selection of high-quality solar cover reels from Pool Boy, Horizon, and GLI for both above-ground and inground swimming pools. For example, we offer both basic solar cover reels for above ground pools and deluxe low profile solar cover reels with all budgets in mind.

How do I choose a solar pool reel?

Above ground solar pool reels eliminate the struggle of covering and uncovering your pool. - Pool size — The pool width is a factor when purchasing a reel. Usually reels are available in options up to 18', up to 24' and up to 28' wide. - Solar Cover Thickness in MIL — Solar covers are normally available in 8 Mil, 12 Mil and 16 Mil.

Can I use a solar reel with a soft sided pool?

This pool solar reel system will accommodate our Heavy Series and Extra-Heavy Series solar covers. 2827 and 2828 are wheel style reels, 2833 is a post and crank style reel due to weight of larger covers. Note: Not for use with soft-sided pools. Remove solar cover and solar reel assembly from swimming pool completely before swimming.

Can a solar cover fit a round above ground pool?

Fit your round above ground pool with a Sun2Solar® cover reel and take the work away from making sure your pool stays heated. Roll up and move your solar cover with ease when it's time to swim! Note: Covers larger than 20' must be folded at the ends to fit. Solar cover reel is not designed to fit over the center of the pool.
