How do I choose a solar panel installer in Idaho?

There are many solar panel installers operating in Idaho, so it may feel daunting to narrow down your options. Start by comparing the companies on this list by your priorities as a customer. Eliminate companies that don't meet your primary needs, then work from the remaining companies. Below is a list of factors to consider as you search.

How do I choose a solar company in Idaho?

To choose a solar company in Idaho, consider one that offers a variety of financing options. For instance, Blue Raven Solar provides two financing plans — BluePower Plus+ and SmartStart — with $0-upfront options for 18 to 42 months.

Are solar panels a good investment in Idaho?

Though the upfront cost of labor may seem high, the savings from proper installation and insured workers are worthwhile in the long run. Idaho is known to have some of the best solar incentives in the country. You may qualify for various rebate programs through the state and federal government.

How much does solar cost in Idaho?

The average price of solar is about $2.02 to $3.02 per watt in Idaho, so anything in that range is a fair price. Some prices may be too good to be true.

If your installer quotes you way below the average price in your area, proceed with caution. Installers must charge fair prices to remain in business and provide you with 25 years of support.

What should you know about going solar in Idaho?

If you're considering going solar in Idaho, here's what you should know: Idaho offers energy independence and freedom from fluctuating electricity prices. When it comes to top-of-the-line solar panels, SunPower is your best choice. However, don't discount options that may not be as flashy but will still get the job done.
