Product Review

The SP15 balances power by producing two 60-volt legs to make 120 volts and running residual noise down the ground. While the SP15A does provide extra noise-reducing benefits, the majority of clean power benefits come from the EP. The SP retails

CAUTION: A correction to my post of 01-10-09 above; DO NOT run the SP-15A from the EP-15A. Plug it into the wall separately. Ordinarily this shouldn't be a problem, but the previous owners/manufacturers of Exactpower forgot to provide the EP with the kind of robust protection circuitry necessary to prevent it being damaged from the large inrush current when ...
