Are people happy with solar panels?

A Forbes Home survey asked people who had installed solar panels at home if they were happy with the technology, and the findings were encouraging. Satisfaction was reported among 89.6% of solar panel owners, while 82% said they would recommend them to others. It's not difficult to see why.

Who is happy solar?

Happy Solar was founded by Matt and Dace Hosking. Their mission is to help transition the local community to clean renewable energy with world class customer service. Matt has been in the solar industry since 2012 and became a NABCEP Certified PV Installation Professional in 2014, which he still holds.
