Overview

What is a solar power purchase agreement (PPA)?

A solar power purchase agreement (PPA) is a financial contract in which a third-party developer owns, operates, and maintains the photovoltaic system, and a customer agrees to purchase the system's electric output from the solar services provider for an agreed-upon price and for a predetermined period.

Who determines the final content of a solar PV solicitation?

Agency contract officers, attorneys, and engineers are responsible for determining the final content of any solicitation. Updated to the regulations, codes, and standards applicable to solar PV are changing frequently; it is the responsibility of agency managers to determine which guidelines (and which versions) apply. Figure 1.

Why should you use a solar procurement template?

Save time in compiling the specifications section of a solar procurement. The template language can be used as a starting point from which agency managers can customize their own language. Act as a checklist so that agencies managers address key issues throughout the process, to ensure the project's best possible outcome.

What is a PV installation agreement?

The Installation Agreement is a lump-sum agreement between the project company, as owner of the project, and the installation contractor, the contractor that will be responsible for installing the PV system, providing the balance of plant and commissioning the plant.

What is a solar RFP?

But first a few key definitions: A Request for Proposal (RFP) is a formal bid document to ask vendors to provide proposals for desired projects, as required by many public agencies (federal, state, local). A solar RFP outlines the photovoltaic (PV) product or service requirements, the contract terms, and bidding process.

Does the public sector need a solar PV system?

The public sector has a substantial stock of buildings and land on which solar PV could potentially be installed. Once a decision has been made to procure solar PV systems the potential influence on the design and specification of components is direct in most cases.
