Why is seismic a great company?

Seismic exists to help fix the planet and change society for the better, enabling companies to prosper by helping them become a force for good. Our vision is that at our 5th birthday party, we'll be celebrating that we have helped enable 10 million people to join the shift and that Seismic is the best place anyone has ever worked.

Are RPS Group employees extending fake interviews or employment offers?

Please be aware that unauthorised individuals claiming to be RPS Group employees are extending fake interviews or employment offers. These scams often use legitimate job boards, social media platforms, and unauthorised RPS logos, employee names, and titles to steal money or personal information from job seekers.

Does RPS Group send job offers?

RPS representatives communicate and transmit job offers from our application portal or email ending in @rpsgroup.com. Any communication outside of rpsgroup.com is not legitimate. RPS Group will never send or request payment or financial information from individuals to secure a job as an employee or contractor.

Does RPS Group ask for personal information?

RPS Group will never send or request payment or financial information from individuals to secure a job as an employee or contractor. RPS Group does not require individuals to release personal data—such as address, national insurance number, tax documents, or banking information—at an interview or job offer stage.

Is RPS a good place to work?

RPS is a great place to do great work. No day is the same and our people are integrally involved in defining our culture, behaviours and success. Working together, we challenge each other and seize opportunities to learn and grow, both professionally and personally. You can too.
