Overview

Is it the solar panels that are leaking?

If solar panels are not ideally suited for your roof, poor installation tactics can make your roof leak. Roofs made from wood shingles, clay, slate, and terracotta tiles are particularly vulnerable to leaks and damage during installation.

Can solar panels cause a roof to leak?

The installation of solar panels on your roof can be an exciting time as it means you will be cutting down your energy costs considerably, but doing this will involve drilling holes in your roof, which could beg the question of whether this will cause your roof to leak?

There are various reasons your roof could leak after installing solar panels.

Can solar panels damage a roof?

Fortunately, roof damage from a solar panel installation is extremely rare because installers take precautionary steps while installing panels to prevent leaks and other damage. Like any home improvement project, using the right service provider is essential to a rooftop solar job.

What happens if solar panels are not installed properly?

Issues such as leaks, broken tiles, and structural damage can occur if the panels are not installed properly. To avoid roof damage, working with experienced installers who understand the intricacies of solar panel installation is essential. They will know how to secure the panels without compromising the integrity of your roof.

Do you have problems with your solar panels?
