In February, it said that the prices paid by US buyers of a 20-foot DC container from China in 2024 would fall 18% to US$148 per kWh, down from US$180 per kWh in 2023. That trend will reverse in the next few years, with small increases in price from 2025 onwards. Prices are expected to increase.

After beginning operations in 2026, the country's maiden deep sea port in Matarbari is expected to save a large part of the freight cost of around 57% and consignment will reach the destination in 60% less time. Currently, one TEU (twenty-equivalent unit) freight cost puts a figure of minimum $3000.

The ESS Price Forecasting Report provides a five-year forecast for the price of a DC battery container, including battery cells, modules, racking, and additional balance of system needed for a containerized battery system. The Q4 2024 report covers pricing outlook updates through December 2024.
