Costs for solar power have plummeted since then. You can now get a 3.5 kW system for £7,026. Because of this, many installers have stopped offering the Rent-a-Roof scheme as it's no longer as lucrative to sell electricity back to the grid. Some installers do still offer Rent-a-Roof for people who can't afford solar panels.

Are rent-a-roof solar panels free?

Rent-a-roof schemes provided free solar panels to households all over the UK during the 2010s – but there were plenty of strings attached. They stand in contrast with current-day solar subscription services like Sunsaver Plus, which allow you to retain control of your roof, your solar panel system, and your future.

How do rent-a-roof solar panels work?

Rent-a-roof solar panel schemes required homeowners to give a solar company the rights to their rooftop or the airspace above it for up to 25 years. That company would then install rooftop solar panels for free, in return for receiving the household's Feed-in Tariff payments.
